FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Revenue, the Office of State Courts Administrator, and the Department of Transportation assume no fiscal impact to their agencies.

Oversight assumes this proposal limits the payment of a person's court costs and attorney fees in cases where the person successfully appeals in court the Department of Revenue's ruling to suspend or revoke such person's license. Oversight also assumes such payment would be an infrequent occurrence. Accordingly, Oversight assumes the cost or savings resulting from this proposal would be minimal.

This legislation would limit to appropriated amounts the payment of court costs and attorney fees by the Department of Revenue in certain cases. The Department of Revenue would pay court costs and attorney fees the person incurs pursuant to such appeal if the court reverses the department's ruling to suspend or revoke such person's license.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
